EDITOR

Foreword

In a short time the "MAC" will lose its immediate appeal. In a short time, too, it will serve as some adult's key to reminiscence. As remembrance is a yearbook's purpose, the "MAC" serves well only if it causes readers to remember high school in McGraw, 1965-1966.

Dedication

In times when indifference is all too prevalent in the world, it takes a remarkable sort of individual to rise above this apathy and to healthfully stimulate the minds and virtues of a younger generation. McGraw is fortunate in having two such individuals whose untiring dedication to the advancement of our town and its people has become an inspiration to others. For immeasurable and unselfish service to the school and to the community, we proudly dedicate the 1966 "MAC" to Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hopkins.

In Memory

*"And the tear that we shed
Though in secret it rolls;
Shall long keep his memory
Green in our soul;*

Thomas Brown—a friend and classmate. This is how we, the Class of 1966, remember him. Unfortunately Tom was killed accidentally as a junior, leaving in body but remaining with us in spirit.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. ROBERT BREAREY
Supervising Principal

Dear Class of 1966,

This, your year of graduation, will bring many new and pleasant experiences and also will be an occasion for many happy memories. As you leave your seniority behind with graduation and become "freshmen" in the world once again, please don't lose sight of one of the primary purposes of your high school experience. This purpose is to provide you with a greater knowledge about what you can do.

For the only way to discover your true potential is to go forward with an open mind and take a look afterward to see how you fared rather than close your mind and not try for fear you might fail. As you mature in judgement you will become a more intelligent experimenter. Don't, however, become a 'doer' who never reflects on his efforts. Make sure you take time to evaluate periodically the results of your activities.

Your class has to be classed as a good class. A class with good leadership, excellent cooperation, and a class that is a pleasure to have in school.

Best of luck in your future years.

Very truly yours,

Robert Brearey

Junior Activities

This year's Junior class was a class of builders. Although they worked hard to come up with a masterpiece, the best they could do was a human pyramid.

The annual magazine sale of the Juniors went well this year. The top salesmen for this year's class were Thomas Fuller, Roxanne Harris, Mary Jane Benedict, and Marlan Dellow.

History

The attentiveness of the American history class is shown by the alertness of each student. Mr. Kelsen seems to make learning about our country an enjoyable and beneficial course.

Mechanical Drawing

Dan, Rich, Carrol, and Charlie are working on their plates for mechanical drawing. Each boy works diligently to alleviate the chance for error in the final production.

Krooked Korner Store

"No, our supply of elephants has not come in yet, but may we interest you in a banner?" The Krooked Korner Store has almost everything one needs for school work.

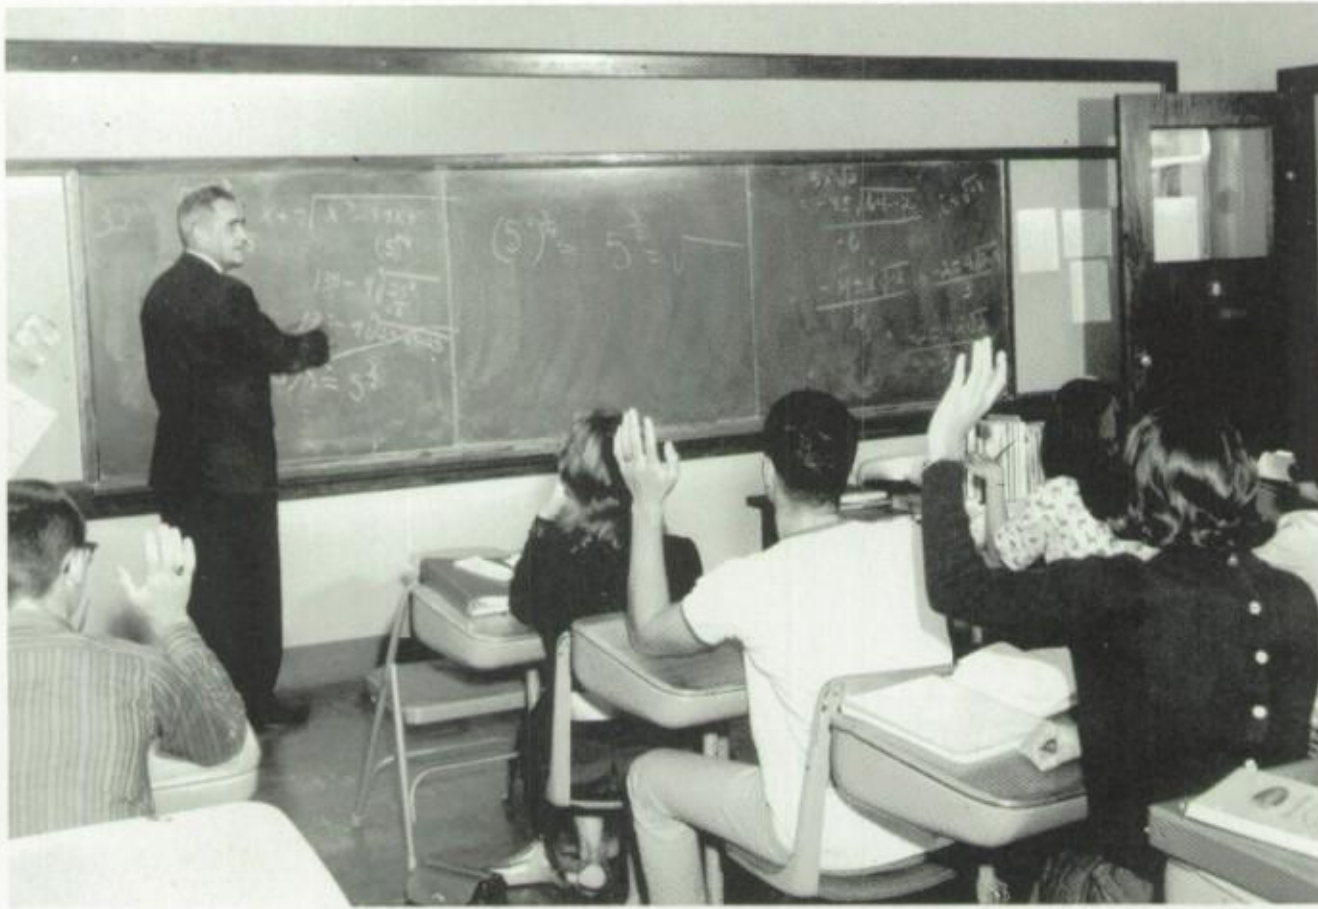

Typing

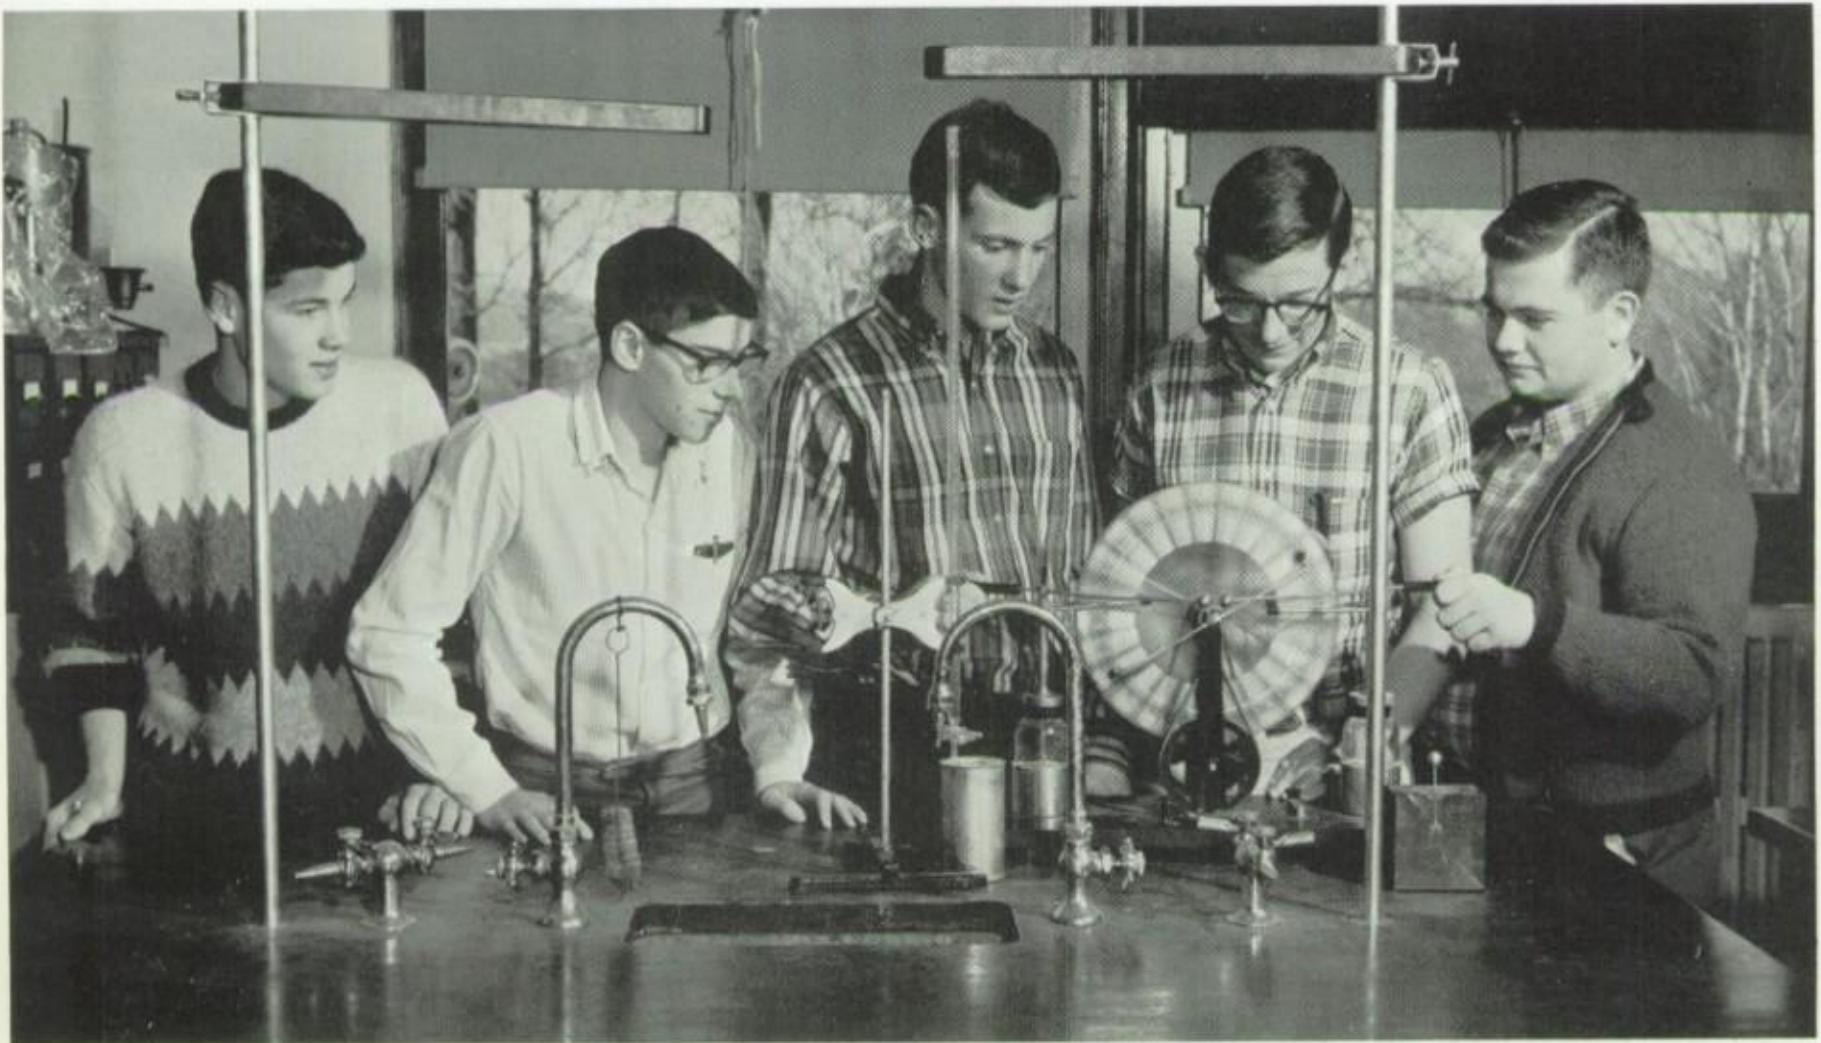

In the typing room the action is always at your finger tips. Each student in this class knows that practice makes perfect.

Math 12

Mr. Howe is seeing if the seniors are awake by asking them a catchy question. The seniors reply by giving him a word of advice: "If there is a problem, work it out with math."

Physics

In their study of electricity, the physics students find the windlass machine very interesting. Simple things amuse intelligent people.

English IV

During the year the English IV class undertook the project of writing a sonnet. Influenced by William Shakespeare and Elizabeth Barrett Browning, the Seniors produced many fine pieces of poetry. Here Annette Parson reads her poem to the class.

Latin II

All 3 of the Latin II Class love to conjugate verbs. Here, their neat handwriting is only exceeded by their joyous smiles.

Junior High Activity

Judy Wilson, Pamela Loomis, Elizabeth Lambert, Steve Bilodeau, and William McGinnis are reading aloud plays they have been studying in English class. They are trying to give their interpretation of the characters and to give the listeners an opportunity to "see" with their ears—to visualize action, characters, and setting.

Our First Honor Society Chapter

McGraw Chapter of the National Honor Society

This year marked the installation of the National Honor Society at McGraw Central. The establishment of the society is a benefit to the school and also to its student body. Members were chosen on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. The service of installation included a candle-light ceremony supervised by representatives of Homer High School's Honor Society. The first to be inducted included nine seniors and one junior: Mardis Kelsen, Beverly Ferris, Patricia Diaz, Roxanne Harris, Marcia Bennett; (standing), Edgar Batsford, Leonard Moore, Frederick Sloan, Roger Bonsteel, John Heim.

This year's Junior Red Cross was composed of June Widger, Pat Genovese, Ann Gale, Karen Stauber, Sue Reif, and had Mrs. Metcalf as advisor.

Led by captains Mark Allen and Walt Heim, this year's McGraw J.V.'s had the best record of any team in McGraw's short history of J.V. soccer. Twenty-three men were on the roster, sixteen of them freshmen. This young team finished second in the league with a 5-3 record. The little eagles outscored all opponents 13-8; and were knocked out of contention in an upset loss to last-placed Marathon. By beating everyone in the league at least once, they showed they might easily have been the best in the league.

Christmas Tournament

Section IV Class C Playoffs

This year's basketball squad compiled a fine 15-5 record. Eight of the wins came in Cortland County League play where the Eagles finished second to Groton's undefeated Indians. Perhaps the most outstanding factor contributing to the Eagles' success was the team defense. Eagle opponents could only muster 57 points per game while McGraw averaged over 70 points per game.

ALMA MATER

When the first red beams of sunrise
Dawns the eastern sky,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,

—Christmas Tournament

This year's Junior Varsity was composed of 13 freshmen and only three sophomores. They began the season with only one experienced player, Paul Gilbert, and promptly lost their first three games. Once they won a game, however, there was no stopping them, as they finished off the season winning eleven of their final fourteen games.

The Jayvees won the Cortland County League championship with a 9-1 record, finishing ahead of Groton who was 7-3. McGraw's overall record was 11-6.

The Little Eagles also played in a Christmas Tournament at Groton, finishing second behind Mt. Carmel. Paul Gilbert was named outstanding player in the Tournament. Paul was also elected Most Valuable Player by his teammates at the end of the season.

Zeke Atkins led the team with 178 rebounds. Chris Allen had 74 assists. Gilbert was high point man with 216.

Malcolm,
 I hope our friendship
 never ends! Keep up your studies and don't let anyone get you down. Pass this grade and be a good Junior to have fun but don't let it go to your head, too much. Okay.
 Say as nice as you already are
 for my sake as well as yours.
 Love always,
 Brenda

Now this is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning.
